

ODXA's QSL Album for October 2009

It is deep regret that I have to post this announcement but effective with this QSL Report I am stepping down as editor. It has been enjoyment doing this column but with the decline interest it is difficult to produce a monthly QSL Column. As well, my interest in sending out reports has drastically reduced my continue interest in DX'ing.....

So here are the finally QSL's for this edition which is a summary
